

Seb's Bio

Sebastian was born in Adelaide in 1979 and grew up in Sydney from the age of two. After attending school in both Sydney and Japan he graduated, with a degree in Psychology, from the University of Sydney. He has travelled the world and taken adventure for a ride, creating opportunities for himself in every destination. Sebastian's international experience includes work in Australia, Spain, France and the UK. With a respectable amount of time dedicated to their bars and restaurants, he has become a respected and informed critic of all things epicurean. Currently he is working for Aurora & EWTN on Foxtel, as a lifestyle and entertainment TV Presenter. With a zest for life and passion for adventure, Sebastian has developed a natural and fun style as a presenter and reviewer in print and broadcast media. He has been involved in media since 1998, with experience ranging across presenting, acting, modelling, production, events and promotions. He has also worked as a Management Consulting specialist and a business owner in the motor-racing industry. Some of his other interests include sport, fashion, the arts, and great food & wine.
